To Whom It May Concern:

When our strategic plan involved growth to lead our business development into the Pacific Rim, we contacted Fitco in Singapore to assist us in recruiting a Sales Director to lead our ambitious business development plans in the region.

Fitco provided WireCo with professional work and diligence in finding the right candidate for our company. We appreciate Fitco's thorough work in learning our organizational culture and needs, which resulted in three highly qualified candidates that matched our requirements for our organization within the first month of recruitment for a Sales Director.

I highly recommend Fitco for organizations seeking leading, high quality talent for their business.

Sincerely,
